Kevin Boehner Joins Ohio Chamber Staff

The Ohio Chamber of Commerce has announced that Kevin Boehner has joined its governmental affairs staff as the Director, Small Business & Workforce Policy.

At the Ohio Chamber of Commerce, Boehner will lead the Ohio Chamber's efforts to advance the organization's public policy agenda on issues that impact companies with 400 or fewer employees while also overseeing workforce development issues.

Boehner, a native of West Chester, Ohio and graduate of The Ohio State University, previously worked as a legislative aide in the Ohio House for Rep. Jeff Rezabek. He was also a campaign manager for the Ohio House Republican Organizational Committee.

"With Kevin's experience at the Statehouse, he will be a great advocate for our members," said Vice President, Government Affairs Keith Lake. "Kevin will work with the leaders on our Ohio Small Business Council to promote and protect the establishment, growth and vitality of our state's small businesses while helping to promote legislation that positively impacts Ohio's workforce."

Founded in 1893, the Ohio Chamber of Commerce is Ohio's largest and most diverse statewide business advocacy group. The Ohio Chamber works to promote and protect the interests of its business members, large and small, while building a more favorable business climate.
