PHILIP MORRIS
INTERNATIONAL

Philip Morris International (PMI) is the only global tobacco company that has committed to a smoke-free future by completely ending cigarette sales. Our mission in America is to offer only products that protect public health for adult nicotine consumers.

Already having a market-leading position in oral nicotine products, we will deliver a superior portfolio of scientifically substantiated smoke-free products to America's approximately 30 million adult smokers, offering them a better choice than continuing to smoke.

To position businesses to succeed for the future challenges, PMI is proud to work with the Ohio business community and advocate for a range of solutions, including statewide standards for the regulation of product sales including preemption of local product bans—allowing businesses to maximize opportunities for business growth and meet the demands of customers.

PMI looks forward to working with the Ohio Chamber of Commerce in the years ahead.

We're delivering a smoke-free future, faster.
