COLUMBUS, OHIO – The below statement can be attributed to Ohio Chamber President & CEO Steve Stivers following Governor Mike DeWine’s signing of Senate Bill 17 today.

“We commend Governor DeWine for signing Senate Bill 17 today. This legislation is a priority bill for the Ohio Chamber because it serves to develop the next generation of entrepreneurs and business owners here in Ohio. Building upon the enacted Senate Bill 1 from the 134th General Assembly, legislation that implements financial literacy curriculum and graduation requirements for our K-12 system, this bill will require the State Board of Education to incorporate education about free market capitalism into that curriculum for our high school students. It is vital that our future generations understand the concepts of free market capitalism and how businesses operate.”
